The Recovery Month Web Event Season Continues With...

"The Cultures of Recovery"

Webcast: Wednesday, July 2, 2003, 3 to 4 p.m., EST
www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia

This Webcast will celebrate and examine the courage, shared behaviors, needs, and values of people striving to overcome substance use disorders. In addition, we will identify the barriers that people with substance use disorders face in seeking treatment and support to overcome their addictions. This Webcast will highlight what communities can do to support and encourage individuals with substance use disorders as they begin the recovery process and as they reclaim their lives.

Join Host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and a panel of experts to explore the ethnic and cultural factors of recovery in this important and timely Webcast.

Panelists: Stacia Murphy, National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence; Maryanne Frangules, Massachusetts Organization for Addiction Recovery; Patty Denney, Father Martin's Ashley; Peter Palanca, Chicago's Treatment Alternative for Safe Communities.

This Webcast will be archived for viewing at any time after the July 2, 2003, premiere at www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia. Videotapes will be available through SAMHSA's National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information at a cost of $12.50 per copy. Copies can be ordered online at www.recoverymonth.gov.

Web chat: After watching "The Cultures of Recovery," you will likely have many questions. You can ask these questions and more as part of a "live" online discussion with William L. White, addiction expert, author, and senior research consultant at Chestnut Health Systems, on Wednesday, July 16, 2003, from 3 to 4 p.m. EST. Be a part of this lively exchange; mark your calendar today and post your questions in advance. Just follow the link from www.recoverymonth.gov/2003/multimedia/.
